BENEFITS TO YOUR BUSINESS

- I'm a recognizable face on one of the most followed college football programs in the country, giving your brand built-in credibility and visibility.
- Fashion, food, real estate, energy drinks. I'm open to any category and can authentically represent a wide range of brands without it feeling forced.
- I'm actively building out YouTube and TikTok alongside Instagram, so there's room for your brand to grow with me across multiple platforms.
- Through B.E.T., I do community and charity work in Philadelphia, giving brands a natural way to tie into something meaningful.
- I have the backing of Oregon Accelerator, a full-service creative studio with in-house content creation capabilities.
